Clubs and Activities

Getting Creamed

The most memorable moment on Wednesday, September 21, 1994 at the Senior Reception was the shaving cream fights. This is one event that all Seniors at Saima Park after 5:00 P.M. took part in. All seniors, whether volunteering, or not, got creamed. Some students got into messier tactics and joined in by cracking eggs on their peers. Many games such as tug-of-war, volleyball, and the hilarious passing the orange game were fun, but the laughter and the spraying of shaving cream was unforgettable! Some lucky students even had the advantage of taking the cream home - ON THEIR CARS!!!!

Left: Kristine Robles smiles for the camera after shutting out Marlboro. Kristine had a very successful season in goal leading the team to District Play.

Above: Heather Sweatman steals the ball from a Leominster player. With Heather's tremendous transition from offense to defense this season, the Lady Raiders beat Leominster three times this season.

Right: Tailback, Lawrence Yarbrough, makes a move to elude would-be North Middlesex tacklers.

Right: A North Middlesex ballcarrier tries in vain to gain yards against a gang of Red Raiders defenders.

Below: Senior Charlie Hammond attempts to steal the ball in a game against Maynard at Crocker Field. The Raiders went on to win that game three to nothing. Charlie supplied both offensive and defensive support this season.

Right: Senior Ken Berry takes a throw at Crocker Field. Ken took many of the throws for the Raiders this season. He made two assists off of throws this year, both to Tua Vue. The highlight of his season was his assist to Tua in the last five minutes of the first game against Leominster. The goal was the only one of that game.

Below: Junior Jason McPhee practices his kick before the game. He was an offensive threat for the Raiders this season.

Left: Senior Keith LaFrenier prepares to boot the ball in a game against Maynard. A new addition to the team, Keith supplied an air of enthusiasm and fun when it was lacking.

Above: Senior Tom Lamey saves one of his many shots of this season. He was the team's MVP and relaxed the defense because they knew he could stop the unstoppable. The highlights of his season were the shutout win against Leominster and his spectacular performance against Wachusett in their shocking tie.

Right: Deanna Wilbur aggressively fights to box out Jessica Vessey of North Middlesex who is trying to pull down a rebound in the Fitchburg High Gym. Deanna showed both composure and drive when coach Tony Alario called for her services off the bench.

Below: Rayna Ambrose takes a tough shot over a couple of North Middlesex defenders at the "brickyard" of Fitchburg High. In a team without size, Rayna helped with her post play and fighting spirit.

Above: Sophomore Shelly Richard drives past Lisa Castellano of North Middlesex. Shelly was starting point guard this season and has played varsity ball both of her high school years. Shelly was one of the big point scorers for the Raiders.

Left: Senior Karen LaFrenier takes a jumpshot over the outstretched arms of Jessica Vessey of North Middlesex. Karen has been on the varsity team for all of her four years at Fitchburg High. This season she won the Mid-Wach league scoring title and was MVP of the Mount Wachusett Community College Tournament.

Right: Senior co-captain Todd Steffanides shows good form on this jumpshot against Wachusett at the Brickyard. Fitchburg went on to defeat Wachusett 84-68.

Below: Junior Dan Schneider, glaring at the ball, receives a pass and prepares to make a move on a Wachusett defender.

"Miss Muffet"

Go forth with courage in your heart,
Despel all doubt and fear,
And if you ever need a hand,
You'll find us always near.

We are so proud of you! Follow your dreams, you can do anything you put your mind to.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Derek

Dear Meg,

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field
Frozen with snow.

Hughes.

All Our Love,
Mom, Keith, and Shaun

Celina,

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

On July 25, U.S. President Bill Clinton welcomes King Hussein of Jordan, right, and Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin to the White House, where the two sign a historic nonaggression pact that ends a 46-year state of belligerency between Israel and Jordan.

Conservative religious groups and those who believe in individual rights clash over issues of education for women and family planning at the U.N. International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt, September 5.

Joyful residents of Belfast celebrate after the Irish Republican Army (IRA) announces an end to its military operations in Northern Ireland as of August 31. After 25 years of British military presence and over 3,000 killings, the IRA says it will now seek Irish union only through political channels.

Tipper Gore, wife of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, visits Rwandan refugee camps in Zaire in July. Thousands of refugees, fleeing ethnic conflict in Rwanda, die of cholera, dysentery, and other infectious diseases. Fresh water supplied by the United States military greatly reduces the number of cholera deaths.

Palestine Liberation Organization chairman Yasir Arafat returns to Palestine in July 1994 after 27 years of exile in Tunisia. Arafat kisses the ground in the Gaza Strip, now a Palestinian autonomous zone under the terms of a 1993 peace accord with Israel.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on preteens rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

A rare white buffalo named Miracle draws crowds to the humble Wisconsin farm where it was born August 20. Native Americans believe the calf is the fulfillment of a Lakota Sioux prophecy. Five hundred years ago, White Buffalo Woman told her people that she would return as a white calf to usher in a new age of harmony between all races of mankind.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration blasts the tobacco company executives at a congressional hearing in March 1994 for denying that nicotine, a drug found in cigarette smoke, is addictive. Tobacco industry workers fear losing their jobs if the FDA succeeds in classifying and restricting cigarettes as a drug.

President Clinton, with Republican leader Bob Dole, signs legislation implementing the U.S. role in an expanded General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), one of the most sweeping trade liberalization pacts in history. The legislation makes the U.S. a member of a new 125-member World Trade Organization. Protectionists worry that GATT may promote world trade but won't sufficiently protect American jobs.

The Secret Service considers restricting public access to the White House after a gunman fires 27 rounds at the building's facade in October. In September, a small Cessna airplane crashes on the South Lawn and comes to rest at the base of the White House below President Clinton's bedroom, killing the pilot.

Aerobic boxing, with boxing-style leg and arm work, turns out to be one of the year's hot exercise trends, showing up in workout studios and attracting those who want to work off their aggression by throwing a right and a few jabs.

Besides recycled clothing like license-plate bustiers, bottle-cap jewelry, trash-bag and duct-tape dresses, fashion trends include the schoolgirl look with thigh-highs, and the grunge-turned-beatnik look of long, straight hair and a goatee.

A new survey shows that over 12 million Americans are vegetarians, choosing the no-meat lifestyle because of concern about animal cruelty, cost-efficiency, eco-friendliness and/or improved health and fitness.

The hottest merchandise around is Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, so hot Cabbage Patch dolls pale in comparison. Parents criticize Fox's super-violent TV show, but their kids crave Dragon Daggers, Megazords, and the 4-foot, $230 battery powered car. "Go, go, Power Rangers!"

Lifestyle News

A hot new collectible derives from an old household item. Milk caps, known in some regions as pogs, originally capped the bottles left by the milkman but have now gone funky with colorful printed designs and variations that are traded and used in games.

Although most are forced to settle for Oakley wrap-arounds, stylin' kids, like in-line skaters and urban youth, clamor for Arnet's $80 Ravens with the silver-chrome frames.

led by brash young skate and surf types, two million snowboarders nationwide discover the joy of swooping down slopes on one board instead of two. No hard boots, no poles, no crossed tips, make it easier than skiing. Since their giant frozen wave is a ski hill, snowboarders annoy old-style skiers who want their slopes left undisturbed by shredders.
